The name of this association is the Delco Soccer League. It may also be referred to as Delco.

Section 3-1: Clubs

The membership of the Delco Soccer League consists of individual clubs: amateur soccer clubs or amateur athletic associations that include soccer teams. Each club may register as many teams as it wants in each of the age divisions established. Each club also registers coaches and players on each team, in accordance with established procedures.

Section 3-2: Official Delegates

The legislative and judicial powers of the Delco Soccer League, unless specifically designated otherwise herein, are vested in a group of Official Delegates. Each club that has a team registered in the Delco Soccer League for the current seasonal year designates one Official Delegate to represent the club as a whole. In addition, each team registered in the Delco Soccer League for the current seasonal year designates one Official Delegate to represent the team.

Section 3-3: Official Delegates and Alternates of Record

The one Official Delegate designated by each club and the one Official Delegate designated by each team shall be recognized as the Official Delegates of record. In addition, an Alternate may be formally designated for each Official Delegate. Unless otherwise designated, the first coach registered on the team roster is automatically the Official Delegate of record, and if a second coach is registered on the team roster, that individual is automatically the Alternate of record. At any meeting of the Delco Soccer League, there is no recognition of an Official Delegate representing a club as a whole, unless one has been formally designated in advance of that particular meeting. To change an Official Delegate or Alternate of record, either from a club or from a team, a written request must be received by the Recording Secretary or President of the Delco Soccer League prior to the start of the meeting at which the change will be recognized.

Section 3-4: Voting Rights

In all matters formally presented at a meeting of the Delco Soccer League, each Official Delegate of record has the right to cast one vote. In the absence of an Official Delegate, the voting right passes to the Alternate of record. The President does not have the right to cast a vote, except in a case of deadlock when the President has the privilege of being able to cast the deciding vote. No other individual ever has the right to cast a vote.

The Liaison has to gather information from the referees reports as to cautions and ejections. This information is recorded and red cards are returned to coaches when the appropriate suspension has been served. Cautions are monitored as three becomes a suspension. Supplemental reports are read to see if there were any incidents which should be referred to the Board or a club representative. The Liaison also gets calls from coaches regarding protests. These are relayed to the Grievance Committee. Evaluations of officials are to be sent after every game and the Liaison keeps track of this and issues club fines at the end of the season for cards not received. A Liaison attends Board Meetings, general meetings and referee executive board meetings each month. This position is available to talk to clubs about the responsibility of the club regarding treatment of officials, the need for evaluation and other problems which concern the club and officials.
